CRES Bio

I am from the city of San Antonio, which is in the great state of Texas. For high school, I attended a small private school that prepared me very well for the great education I received at WashU. While I attended WashU, I was an active member of the Jewish community, Student Admissions Committee, and a regular member of basketball, flag football, soccer and softball intramural sports teams.

Outside of the academic world, I like to spend my time learning to cook new dishes, improving my Talmudic skills, being an amateur video editor, and spending time with my friends and family. Most of all, I'm travel junkie who likes to try many new activities while I'm in a new environment—whether it be bungee jumping, skydiving, or glacier hiking in New Zealand, snorkeling at the Great Barrier Reef, or even taking extremely long hikes through the Grand Canyon.
