

International Internship Programs

Paris Internship Abroad

ESCP

Students participate in an internship program through an exchange agreement between Olin and the ESCP Europe, the first business school in Europe. Students enroll in a four-week intensive French-language course before beginning a 15-week full-time internship, in which they complete a significant research project and presentation in English, and a report of their internship in French. Students may also choose to do a traditional study abroad in English or French with no French pre-requisites. *
