FAQ

Why Create A Profile?

So you can best market your skills and industry knowledge to hiring managers around the world.

Who Will Have Access to My Résumé?

The Olin MBA Alumni Résumé Book Database is exclusively available to top global firms like those listed.

Who Is Eligible To Participate?

The alumni résumé book is exclusive for experienced MBAs... Olin alumni who have MBAs from Olin, or another university, and current PMBA and EMBA students, who are experienced professionals.

Can I Remain Confidential?

Yes, by selecting the confidentiality option, your résumé and contact information cannot be viewed by corporate recruiters. When your credentials match their search criteria, they will send a blind e-mail describing their firm and the opportunity. You can choose whether to respond.

How Often Should I Update My Résumé and Profile?

You may update your profile and résumé/CV as often as you'd like and, in particular, if there are any personal or professional changes.

Is There A Fee?

No. It is completely free of charge.

What Companies Will Be Using This Service?

Global firms will be using this service to locate candidates for their management, director and executive level positions. Current subscribers include Fortune 500 companies, and the leading firms within the banking, investment, consulting, technology, consumer products and retail industries.

What if my company is using this service? Will they be able to see my profile?

If you choose the "Confidentiality" option, the recruiters at your company will not be able to see your résumé or contact information. If these recruiters attempt to contact you, simply do not respond to the blind e-mail. You will remain entirely anonymous to them.

What is a blind e-mail?

A blind e-mail is an e-mail that allows the receiving party to remain anonymous to the sending party. Please be aware that if you receive a blind e-mail from a recruiter, you can see their e-mail address but they cannot see yours.

How Can Recruiting Firms Participate?

Each company is reviewed and approved by the MBA Focus staff prior to gaining access to candidate résumés. For more information, contact info@mbafocus.com.
